Supreme Belief
"MRS. EDDY WILL RISE AGAIN,
AS CHRIST DID," SAYS STETSON.
Millennium at Hand With End of Gospel
Age, Declares New Leader.

New York Zealot Awaits Manifestation, by Dead
High Priestess of the Faith Who "Repeats History of Jesus the Way-Shower and Is Destined to Act as Mouthpiece of the Eternal God."

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. August E. Stetson, from whom Christian Science has been expected some important message ever since the death of Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy, high priestess of the faith, announced tonight that she believed the millennium is at hand, that the end of the gospel age has arrived and that Mrs. Eddy will return in the semblance of human form and will continue to lead her followers.

Mrs. Stetson said, in substance, that she is watching and waiting for the "manifestation" of Mrs. Eddy's "return" from the grave may be expected in a few days or a few years—possibly even twenty years from now—but that she is confident that the founder of Christian Science will "reveal herself" not only to the few scientists who have attained a high degree of "spirituality," but to the world at large.

Mrs. Eddy's "return," said Mrs. Stetson, will doubtless be hastened by an effort of the Mother Church authorities, or the so-called hierarchy of Christian Science, to tamper with the Christian Science manual, and she added that she learned today that the Mother Church directors had already tampered with the manual to the extent of removing Mrs. Eddy's name as "pastor emerita" from one of the pages.

SAME AS WORD OF GOD.

Mrs. Stetson said she looked up this manual as the word of God, as interpreted by Mrs. Eddy, and that any change in the wording of the manual was a sacrilege and not to be contemplated.

Mrs. Stetson said also that she regarded Mrs. Eddy in the light of a "second Christ," and that she believed that she would "manifest herself" just as Christ did. "Unlike Christ," said Mrs. Stetson, "Mrs. Eddy will remain on earth when she manifests herself."

According to Mrs. Stetson's belief, the "return" of Mrs. Eddy will have as great a significance as that of the resurrection of Christ and it will mean proof to all of the world that death can be triumphed over.

Couched in the language of advanced Christian Scientists, Mrs. Stetson has embodied her belief in the resurrection of Mrs. Eddy in a long letter to one of her students, written on December 15, in reply to questions regarding the "passing away" of Mrs. Eddy. Copies of this letter have been forwarded to many of Mrs. Stetson's personal students throughout the country. She begins by saying that she is grieved by the student's question in regard to the experience through which our beloved leader, Mary Baker Eddy, is passing in her final demonstration over the claim of death and the tomb.

EXPLAINS CONTRADICTION.

Mrs. Stetson's avowal of her belief in the approaching "manifestation" of Mrs. Eddy is somewhat at variance with her statements on Wednesday. On that day, when the story became known that certain Christian Scientists were looking for the "resurrection" of Mrs. Eddy, Mrs. Stetson was quoted as saying that she did not believe in the resurrection theory.

She explained that tonight by saying that on the day before the hour was not at hand for "truth to go out." But after the publication of the story in yesterday's papers, Mrs. Stetson says she decided that the time was ripe for her message to the world. She added that the entire field of Christian Science has been demoralized and saddened by the lack of faith in those who above all others should have faith in "this important hour."

In this Mrs. Stetson referred to the Christian Science Board of Directors, who have admitted the death of Mrs. Eddy. Mrs. Stetson does not admit Mrs. Eddy's death. She says that Mrs. Eddy's mind is still alive and actively engaged at present, although her material body is in the tomb at Mount Auburn Cemetery, on the outskirts of Cambridge, Mass.

She also said she did not disapprove of the four armed guards stationed at Mrs. Eddy's tomb, as they attracted attention to the place where Mrs. Eddy lies and center the eyes of the world upon the spot from which the "manifestation" may come.

MRS. STETSON'S LETTER.

Following is the letter Mrs. Stetson wrote to her student:

"The belief of a so-called mortal mind expressed in the material world, the flesh and evil, is a myth, which the light of spiritual understanding dispels. Mrs. Eddy, who was the representative of God, His perfect principle. If there is no mortal mind, as our text-book declares, there is no embodiment of mortal mind called a matter body. If there is no power and no matter, there is no resurrection."

Gained American Fame by Declaring Society of Washington to Be Provincial. Reported to Have Led to Recall of Husband, Ambassador From Austria.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Baroness Hengelmüller von Hengervar, wife of the Austrian Ambassador, is reported here to be suffering with appendicitis, and her condition is said to be such that the physicians are unable to decide whether they can operate immediately.

The baroness recently was made an imperial palace lady by Emperor Francis Joseph, the designation implying that she can trace her royal lineage through thirty-six members of her line. Some time ago the baroness was quoted in a New York newspaper as stating that Washington society was provincial and not comparable with that of New York. The interview was denied by the baron, but not before it had caused a diplomatic disturbance, out of which grew rumors that her husband would be recalled from Washington.

Miss Helen Taft Starts Crusade in Washington Society for Earlier Hours of Retiring.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Miss Helen Taft, daughter of the President, has promulgated a campaign for early hours among the younger members of the social set. If the campaign is successful, late hours will be given up and the all-night dance abandoned.

Miss Taft's idea is that the young people should conserve their health as well as their elders. Hostesses are fixing their dance and dinner hours earlier as a result of the new movement. Last year late hours wrought havoc with the health of the debutantes.

Miss Taft has to share with her mother this winter the burden of White House entertaining and it will be impossible for her to do this and stay up until the small hours.

FREEZING WEATHER SWEEPS
SOUTH ALMOST TO THE GULF.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

LOUISVILLE (Ky.) Dec. 29.—Unusually cold weather with freezing temperatures almost to the Gulf, prevails throughout a large portion of the South tonight.

The cold, wave follows closely upon the heels of a general weather disturbance which took the form of a thunder storm in the central valley and snow in northern Texas. Snow fell early and throughout the Texas Panhandle and a severe wind and rain storm prevailed along the Gulf coast.

Southeastern Texas experienced the first heavy rain in five months. In Houston several street car lines were put out of commission and other damage was noted.

The storm is moving toward the South Atlantic States from Texas, and warnings have been displayed along the Mississippi, Alabama and Florida coasts. Communication by wire has been seriously interrupted in many sections.

Order Issued by Comptroller of Currency to Guard
'Against Repetition.'

Practically Uniform System of Book-keeping Must Go Into Effect.

Every National Institution in America Affected by
New Ruling.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Following the forced liquidation of the Quannah National Bank of Quannah, Tex., ten days ago, caused the Comptroller of the Currency today to issue an order directing every one of the 7100 national banks in the United States to install what practically amounts to a uniform system of book-keeping.

Investigation disclosed that the bank had been doing business for the last two years, although undoubtedly insolvent, and although inspected at regular intervals by national bank examiners. Within that time the examiners were unable to learn the bank's true condition, largely because the management refused to keep a proper record of its transactions. It also showed that the entire capital of $25,000 and probably some of the $25,000 surplus was paid out to stockholders as dividends.

HOODWINKED EXAMINERS.

In the statement, Comptroller Murray says his examiners were hoodwinked for two years by the way the bank handled its notes.

"Within these two years," the Comptroller says, "the bank carried comparatively little 'past due' paper, all the notes having the appearance of being promptly paid or renewed. The bank had no discount register and the various earning accounts were kept in such a manner as to make it practically impossible to audit them."

"By this method of accounting," the bank, without detection by the examiners, had the doubtful and worthless notes renewed with the interest added to the notes at the time of renewal. This interest on worthless paper had not been collected, and was credited to some one of the earning accounts, and as the dividends were regularly paid, this resulted in paying the capital out to shareholders as dividends."

Reports to headquarters show that an examiner finally became suspicious shortly before the bank's closing and insisted that a new set of books be installed. This the officers did under protest, the report says, but abandoned the new system to return to the old one two days later, after the examiner had departed. Returning to Quannah unexpectedly the examiner found the change and reported it by telegraph to Washington.

NEW RULE ORDERED.

To insure a system of book-keeping by which the true condition of a national bank can be determined at any moment, the order issued today directs examiners, on finding a bank whose exact condition they cannot determine, to report the fact by telegraph to Washington and give the management of the bank thirty days to install the necessary books.

"At the end of that period," says the Comptroller's order, "the examiner will return to the bank at its expense to determine if instructions have been complied with and if the necessary books have not been installed, he will remain in the bank at its expense until such books are installed under the direction and supervision of the examiner."

No attempt to fix the responsibility for the Quannah National Bank's condition has been made.

CANAL LAWS TO BE HURRIED UP.

Legislation at Present Term of Congress Possible.

President and Party Leaders See Need for Haste.

Senator Flint to Draft Bill to Suit Executive.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON (D. C.) Dec. 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] As a result of the conference at the White House last night, it has been decided to get legislation enacted at this session, if possible, covering important questions relating to the management and operation of the Panama Canal. Senator Flint, as chairman of the Committee on Inter-Oceanic Canals, will have charge of this legislation in the Senate.

It is the purpose of Senator Flint to introduce a bill, in accordance with the recommendation in the President's message, providing:

First, that after the completion of the Panama Canal the matter of the sale of coal, oil for fuel and other ship supplies at the isthmus shall be in the hands of the government.

This is to prevent monopoly, and to insure that ship supplies through the canal will be furnished with fuel and other ship supplies as cheaply as they can be obtained at the Suez canal.

MATTER OF TOLLS. Second: That the President shall be given the power to fix tolls on the canal and it is proposed that these shall range between a minimum of 50c and a maximum of $1.50 per ton.

The purpose of this is to have the rate of tolls elastic in the hands of the President so that competition by way of Suez can be met. To have the tolls fixed arbitrarily by Congress would subject the canal to the danger that tolls through the Suez canal would be so fixed as to draw the freight that way and there would arise a condition that could not be met until Congress could meet and change the rates to meet the competition.

In addition, it might be ascertained that freight could be induced to go through the canal if an attractive rate of tolls could be extended which would not be routed that way at a rate arbitrarily fixed. It would then be a good business proposition to have the power in the cabinet's hands to reduce rates to increase the business.

COASTWISE TRAFFIC. Third: Providing that all American vessels engaged in coastwise trade—that is, sailing from one port of the United States to another—shall have free toll through the canal; or their toll shall be refunded. This provision is to apply except in the cases of vessels owned by the government, or by railroad companies competing directly or indirectly with steamship lines, and the President is to be the judge of whether the exemptions are so controlled or operated.

Fourth: Providing that any American vessels that sail through the canal to the right of the government to take over such vessels at any time it may see fit.

TWO GREAT BENEFITS.

The great benefit of this would be that in all probability there will be a line of high-class steamers running through the canal and between the Atlantic and Pacific ports of the United States.

ASKS FOR "PEN" SENTENCE.

CHICAGO, Dec. 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] An even number of years ago yesterday the name of J. Edgar Hoover, 36 years old, asked when arraigned in the Des Moines street branch of the municipal court before Judge Hill yesterday on a charge of throwing a beer glass through a plate glass window, "I got my start in crime when I was 17, when I stole a watermelon," said Robinson. "I was a hard case, but I've been in prison for every thing from disorderly conduct to horse stealing. I want to get back to Joliet. I may die there, but I don't want to be a better place to die than on the streets. If they will only give me an even number when I get down there I will be ready to die happily." Robinson gave his occupation as "jail bird" and was held to the grand jury.

ROADS' GROWTH IS STATIONARY.

Little Increase Noted Over Last Year.

Block Signal Devices Show Big Increase.

Commission's Ruling to Bear Upon Improvements.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CHICAGO, Dec. 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] According to statistics compiled by the Railway Age-Gazette, the rate of development of the physical properties of the railroads of the United States has been about the same in 1919 as it was in 1918. Latest returns show that the number of miles of new railway built during the last year was 418.

The number of miles constructed during 1919 was 374, while the total new mileage built in 1917 aggregated 521 miles of track.

The number of miles of the installation of block signal devices reports show that there was an increase during 1919 of 507 in the number of miles of railway protected by these signals.

The following table shows the total miles of railway protected by block signals at the end of 1919, as compared with the total mileage similarly protected in 1918:

Automatic	14,419	17,395
Manual	49,905	51,908
Total	64,324	69,303

During 1919 seven railways having 73 miles of line and a capitalization of $1,000,000, went into the hands of receivers, while during the year previous receivers were appointed for five roads with 83 miles of line and a capitalization of $7,000,000.

Throughout 1919 there were seventeen roads having a mileage of 1109 miles and an aggregate capitalization of $9,000,000, which were sold at foreclosure sale.

The following are the figures on the number of roads foreclosed:

	1919	1918
Freight cars	141,304	139,380
Passenger cars	2,881	4,414
Capitalization	2,587	2,550

Information obtained from various sources shows that while the amount of equipment ordered in 1919 was substantially less than in 1918, the amount of equipment built in 1919 and 1918 follows:

	1919	1918
Freight cars	130,245	130,245
Passenger cars	4,412	2,849
Capitalization	2,587	2,550

Officials of equipment companies declare that in the last six months of the calendar year 1919 and the first six months of 1920, the number of equipment orders received were unusually heavy. On the other hand, it is pointed out that the equipment in the latter half of 1919 were very light.

In considering the results of the year-end figures, the current number of the Age-Gazette says: "So many cross-currents have been at work to affect the equipment business that it is difficult to tell whether in the future the owners and managers of the railways and the public will be able to keep abreast of progress or as one of retrogression."

"All classes of persons are looking forward with much interest and some with apprehension to the decisions which will be rendered by the Interstate Commerce Commission in the cases involving advances in freight rates."

"It is felt that whatever the decision of the commission may be, it will be followed by an improvement in conditions, but the extent of the improvement will depend largely on what the decisions are."

CHICAGO, Dec. 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Word was given out today that Henry Thurtell, for three years a member of the Nevada Railroad Commission, intends to leave his resignation to Gov. Odell, shortly after January 1. Thurtell has been offered and will accept an appointment as examiner for the Interstate Commerce Commission and expects to leave for Washington to assume his new duties some time next month.

Thurtell is considered one of the best mathematicians in the country. For many years he was dean of the University of Nevada and head of the mathematics branch of the American Society of Engineers and at the beginning of the year 1919 he was appointed a member of the railroad commission. He is a Republican.

Two Hill agents who spent last week in Cameron have assured officials in Lake Charles that the proposed railroad will touch Lake Charles when constructed through to Cameron.

Growers of Five States Object to Compact For Next Season, Owing to Heavy Stocks Now on Hand.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.) LEXINGTON (Ky.) Dec. 29.—Indications here today are that when the busy growers of Kentucky, Indiana, Missouri and West Virginia meet in this city January 5, the members of the Burley Tobacco Society and the Tobacco Growers Association of the American Society of Equity will object to a producing compact for 1921. The objectors say the growers have large quantities of the crop on hand, while the 1919 crop, which has not been pooled, is practically untouched.

Another crop of the tobacco growers would be the market. Producers of about 300,000,000 pounds of tobacco annually will be affected by the new arrangement.

The material has a mottled appearance with various shades of gray and white, indicating its age and possibly the way it was stored or handled. The texture is visible, with some areas appearing smoother than others. The strip is set against a dark, almost black background, which makes the lighter material stand out. CLASH OF DATES IS A SURPRISE.

AVIATION AND CHARIOT RACES FOR SAME TIME.

Tournament of Roses Directors and Directors of the Board of Trade Will Likely Take Some Action in the Hope of Having the Proposed Events Called Off.

(Office of The Times, 25 S. Raymond avenue.)

PASADENA, Dec. 29.—Considerable surprise was manifested last night when it was learned that the Aviation Committee of Los Angeles, which now has charge of the exercises being given at the Dominguez Aviation Field, had passed resolutions last night after the program of events will be given on the Dominguez Field next Monday afternoon at the same time the Roman Chariot races will be held in Tournament Park.

When the time was fixed to have the aviation meet during the holidays, Col. W. J. Hogan and D. M. Linnard promoted the Aviation Committee that if no aviation events were given January 1, the Tournament of Roses Day, that Pasadena would subscribe $10,000 to the guarantee fund.

The program for the aviation events was made up accordingly, with January 1 left blank, so that no counter attraction would be given while the chariot races were being held at Tournament Park. Thursday the Aviation Committee notified Hogan and Linnard that the $10,000 which they promised had not been paid in and unless the same was forthcoming before yesterday afternoon, the committee would not feel bound by its agreement and that an aviation programme would be arranged for Monday afternoon.

However, the Pasadena Board of Trade, which is in charge of the chariot races, has decided to postpone the chariot races to Monday afternoon, so that the aviation events will begin at 2 o'clock, which will give ample time for everyone to reach the field after seeing the rose parade.

The chariot races constitute the chief source of revenue for the Tournament of Roses festival, because there is no admission charge to see the big rose parade, but there is an admission fee for those who want to see the chariot races, and this admission fee is used to pay the expenses, including prizes for the various winning entries of the rose parade, music, and other expenses of the day.

The directors of the Tournament of Roses fear that the attraction will deprive them of considerable revenue. A meeting of the directors will be held this afternoon. Secretary Rider stated last night that some action will probably be taken at this meeting, but would not state the nature of such action. The Board of Trade directors have also appointed a committee to take some action looking toward having the aviation events "called off" for Monday afternoon.

ROSE PARADE GORGEOUS.

With a cloudy night, last night, and prospects for excellent weather next Monday forenoon, every one in the city is feeling well over the prospects for one of the largest and most beautiful floral parades ever given in Pasadena. Many of the floats this year will be of a new design and very attractive. One of the most original and well as beautiful, will be that of the Hotel Green, on which there is being much time and attention expended. E. D. Davis has charge of the Board of Trade float and he stated yesterday that his production will be a sure prize winner.

The various judges have been selected, but most of them will not be announced until after the prizes have been awarded. Ed. O. however, has been selected as the big chief of the chariot race, which according to present plans, as announced, will be the attraction of the afternoon. It has been decided not to have a polo game because Chief of Police Wood has stated the infield will be needed for the people in automobiles and carriages, who will want to see the chariot race.

Word has been passed out that there will be some other lesser attractions, but, so far, nothing of a definite nature has been given out to the public. The intention is that such information would be likely to get into the hands of the unofficial program writers and upset the plans and calculations of the man who has secured the right to publish the official program, which will be sold on the streets.

LEASE STEEL STEAMSHIP.

SAN FRANCISCO FIRM PAYS FANCY FIGURE FOR VESSEL.

Lease Runs For Three Years and Brings a Third More Money in That Time Than the Vessel Cost. Los Angeles Auto Owner Runs Down Aged Man.

LONG BEACH, Dec. 29.—Local investors in the new steel steamship Navajo, building at the Craig Ship Plant, this morning received word from San Francisco that the big freight and passenger steamer had been leased for three years to Bates and Cheesborough, a shipping and commission firm of San Francisco, on a basis of $275 a day, which means a net clear up over expenses of $4000 monthly or a dividend of 24 per cent. annually to the stockholders during the contract. The deal has been under consideration for some time but was held open in hopes of getting a still better lease.

The Navajo is being built at a cost of $150,000, while her owners, the Western Navigation Company, is capitalized at $200,000, most of the stock being held by Long Beach people. The Navajo will be ready for launching in April. She is of steel 260 feet long and forty-two foot beam.

A Reasonable Plea For The Stomach

If Your Stomach is Lacking in Digestive Power, Why Not Help the Stomach Do Its Work—Especially When It Costs Nothing to Try?

Not with drugs, but with a reinforcement of digestive agents, such as are naturally at work in the stomach. Scientific analysis shows that digestion requires pepsin, nitrogenous ferments, and the secretion of hydrochloric acid. When your food fails to digest, it is proof positive that some of these agents are lacking in your digestive apparatus.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets contain nothing but these natural elements necessary to digestion and when placed at work in the weak stomach and small intestines, supply what the system needs. They stimulate the gastric glands and gradually bring the digestive organs back to their normal condition.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have been subjected to critical chemical tests at home and abroad and are found to contain nothing but natural digestives.

Chemical Laboratory, Telegraphic address, "Difido," London. Telephone No. 11029 Central. 20 Cullum St., Fenchurch Lane, E. C. 3, London, E. C. 3, England.

I have analyzed most carefully a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets (which I bought myself at a city chemist's shop for the purpose), manufactured by the F. A. Stuart Co., 86 Clerkenwell Road, London, E. C. 1, and have to report that I cannot find any trace of vegetable or mineral poisons. Knowing the ingredients of the tablets, I am of opinion that they are admirably adaptable for the purpose for which they are intended.

John R. Brooke, F.L.C., F.C.S. There is no secret in the preparation of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. Their composition is commonly known among physicians, as is shown by the recommendation of 40,000 licensed physicians in the United States and Canada. They are the most popular of all remedies for indigestion, dyspepsia, water brash, insomnia, loss of appetite, melancholia, constipation, "peevishness" and kindred diseases originating from improper digestion and assimilation of foods, because they are thoroughly reliable and harmless to man or child.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are at once a safe and a powerful remedy, one grain of these tablets being strong enough (by test) to digest 3,000 grains of steak, eggs and other foods. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest your food for you when your stomach can't.

Ask your druggist for a fifty-cent package or send to us direct for a free trial sample package and you will be surprised at the result. F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

SAYS HE SAW JAP HELD UP.

HOBBERY REPORTED AT FIRST AND CENTRAL AVENUE.

Nipponese Says That Three Negroes Stopped Him and While One Held a Revolver to His Face the Other Two Went Through His Pockets and Took His Money.

Something decidedly novel, even in the line of hold-ups, occurred about 9 o'clock last evening when a pedestrian was supposedly stopped at the point of a revolver in the bright light of an electric arc, while every move was seen by a witness, who later followed the footpad four blocks. Neither he nor the victim was able to give any description of the men, except that they were three negroes.

The man reported to be held up was Y. Kifanuma, a Jap, of No. 506 Ducommun street, who says that he encountered the negroes at the corner of First street and Central avenue. Without a word, the foremost thrust a heavy revolver under the Jap's nose with the plain intimation that if he made a sound he would be shot. The other two, with seemingly practiced hands, went through the victim's pockets, relieving him of $24 in gold and currency and a nickel watch. The entire operation did not occupy more than a minute, according to the statement of John Smith, a Westlake Station hack driver, who said he witnessed it from the corner of his vehicle about half a block away.

So quickly and quietly was it done, Smith says, that he did not realize what was happening. It was all over and the Jap came running toward him, crying in broken English that he had been held up. The hack driver says that the men ran down Central avenue and that he immediately set out after them, driving at some distance in order that they should not take the alarm until he could summon help.

In this manner, he says, in and the Jap followed the trio as far as Fifth street, where they turned into the Arcade depot. There, in the midst of seeking civilian help, no policeman being near, Smith decided the right thing to do would be to make a report in person to the detective office at the station station, rather than over a mile distant.

Once there, neither he nor the Jap could tell what their men looked like, though the very poor English and the great fright of the Nipponese in a measure accounted for his nervous capacity for observation. Smith was also stubborn in his declaration that he could not even tell what sort of hats the men wore, even though he had seen them in light nearly as bright as day.

Though the officers were inclined to be somewhat skeptical, in view of the remarkable circumstances, two were immediately dispatched to the station to make an investigation which, so far as reports were concerned, was without success.

The police and the Pinkertons are giving a good deal of attention to the eastern end of the problem of the dynamiting of the Livestock Iron Works. Four of them came direct to Los Angeles immediately following the strike declaration; two spent some time in attendance at the I.W.O. demonstration against the police of Spokane last winter and spring, and the remaining two remained a brief time in Denver in their transcontinental jaunt.

THROUGH PROXY SHE MUST SHOP.

NOVEL PUNISHMENT INFLICTED BY SUPERIOR JUDGE.

Woman Who Admits Criminal Impulse to Steal From Department Store Hereafter Will Have Purchases Made By Some Friend. While She Looks in the Window.

To the average woman, Judge Davis of the Superior Court inflicted a severe punishment upon a confessed shoplifter yesterday when he told her that hereafter she must keep out of the stores. When she wants to do out in "window-shopping," while any trading, she will have to take it some friend goes inside to make the purchases.

This novel judgment was rendered in the case of Maria Fernandez, who stole 245 yards of silk from a department store. The trial of her alleged partner in the theft, Pasquale Gutierrez, who pleaded not guilty, has been set for February.

Last week the court released the woman on her own recognizance, as she had three children at home who needed her attention. She came here from "across some months ago," having been deserted by her husband. She confessed she took the silk in the hope of being able to secure money for the goods.

The sentence of the court was that Mrs. Fernandez should be released on a three years' term of probation, but during the first year she is not to go into a store of any description. If she needs anything she may send someone else in to purchase it, but she personally must confine her shopping to the windows of the stores. She is not to enter within under pain of having a penitentiary sentence meted out under the charge of grand larceny.

Mrs. Fernandez told the court that she had only met Gutierrez about two weeks before the commission of the offense. He had told her that it was easy to steal from the Los Angeles stores, she said, and as she needed money badly, she took a chance.

High Tribunal.

THREE RULINGS COURT RENDER.

SUPREME BENCH DECIDES FOR THIS COUNTY.

Judgment of Superior Judge Reversed in Bell Case Which Involves Settlement of Estate—Bank Matter Settled in Favor of State Railroad Interesting Point of Law.

Three Supreme Court decisions affecting litigants residing in the southern judicial district were received here yesterday. Two of the decisions sustained judgments previously rendered by the trial courts, but the other, involving the estate of Solomon Bell, was a reversal of the previous judgment.

Los Angeles county was favored by the Supreme bench in a decision that concerned a triangular strip of land in Garvanza flanking the railroad tracks. The central point of the strip at issue is at the intersection of San Rafael avenue and the Garvanza cut-off of the old San Gabriel railroad. This was originally a portion of the Rancho San Pascual.

The defendants and appellants, Joseph E. Hannon et al., alleged that the deed given by the county was void, owing to the fact that it had been incorrectly described. The lower court, however, ruled in favor of the county, and the matter was appealed. The higher court sustained the previous ruling.

The only reversal of a previous judicial ruling, was handed down in the case of Mary Jane Bell, administratrix of the estate of the late Solomon Bell of Los Angeles, who sued C. N. Wilson, and his bondsmen, W. Lord for an accounting, fixed by a previous court decision at $3484.1.

The State was the agent for the Bell estate until 1903. After he was forced to give an accounting of his expenditures, he was superseded by Mrs. Bell. At the time of this action, Wilson was ordered to turn over to Mrs. Bell $744.1.

Wilson, however, according to the papers, refused to comply with the wishes of the court, and in the resultant legal contest, secured a favorable judgment against Mrs. Bell. The latter appealed to the Supreme Court, and its decision ordered Wilson to pay her the sum ordered by the previous judgment.

The State won a favorable ruling in its case against the Bank of San Luis Obispo. The bank was declared insolvent by the State Bank Commissioner in September, 1909, under the banking laws passed in 1905. Shortly after the institution was declared insolvent, a suit was commenced against the estate.

While the litigation was being contested, the 1905 banking acts were repealed. The bank officers filed new proceedings, alleging that they could not be forced to close their doors under the new laws. The lower court ruled in their favor.

The trial court, however, ruled against the bank, and the matter was appealed to the Supreme Court. The judgment of the lower court was sustained.
